HELLO

Sonorité Music provide exceptional musicians and ensembles for Weddings, Recitals and Events throughout London and the Home Counties.

Sonorité Music offer a range of highly experienced musicians and ensembles for recitals, weddings, events and concerts across the UK. We are not an agency, but an exclusive collective of highly sought after freelancers. Our performers are the best in the business, so we let them be front and centre. Sonorité Music provides fairer contracts for our musicians, meaning that whether you need an ensemble for a classical recital, or some background music for an event, you can have the same top quality artists that play regularly in London's world-class classical and commercial music scene.

We provide a selection of ensembles to suit every event and are able to play a wide variety of music from Baroque and Classical to Film & Theatre and Pop." Some of our most popular ensembles can be found later on in this brochure, but as a flexible collective we are able to contract our musicians individually or in duos and other arrangements when necessary and appropriate - for example if you like the sound of the flute but don't have the space for a whole trio we could arrange a solo flautist or a flute & cello duo to play for your event instead.

We pride ourselves on our engaging recital programmes which can also be tailored to suit audience demographics, rarely consisting of any single style or genre.

The team are committed to bringing live classical music to audiences and communities otherwise unable to listen. We have performed and organised recitals in schools, youth centres, churches and other arts venues and are always looking to play in new venues.

OUTREACH & EDUCATION

We are committed to bringing live classical music to audiences and communities otherwise unable to listen.

---

Sonorité Music believes that classical music is for everyone, no matter their background, education or prior musical experience. We are committed to bringing the best music, in accessible and engaging ways, to audiences who otherwise wouldn't have the opportunity, or wouldn't take the opportunity. We want to ditch the stigma surrounding classical music, without compromising on the quality of the performance. We firmly believe that classical music is still relevant, and that there is a vibrant, diverse and excited audience for it, particularly if one is to look outside of the concert hall.

Our musicians are all experienced, dedicated and engaging teachers, keen for opportunities to play for and offer guidance to students of all ages, including composers.

Sonorité Music have a variety of programmes designed for schools and community venues to encourage an interest in classical music. Each concert for schools we organise, as well as providing an engaging, entertaining musical experience for young audiences, also supports the National Curriculum's requirements that children learn to 'use their voices expressively', 'listen with attention to detail and recall sounds', and listen with 'concentration and understanding to a range of high-quality live music'.

We have performed and organised recitals in schools, youth centres, churches and other arts venues and are always looking to play in new venues and settings.
